FEDERAL ENERGY REGULATORY COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, D. C. 20426

April 18, 2006

The Honorable Leonard A. Fasano
The State of Connecticut Senate
Legislative Office Building, Suite 3400
Hartford, CT 06106-1591

Dear Senator Fasano:

Thank you for your February 15, 2006 letter in which you requested information from the application filed by Broadwater Energy LNG and Broadwater Pipeline in Federal Energy Regulatory Commission Docket No. CP06-54-000, et. al.

Instructions for viewing Critical Energy Infrastructure Information (CEII) may be obtained on our website at http://www.ferc.gov. Simply scroll down the home page and click on the "CEII" link below the map on the right. For assistance, call (866) 208-3676 or TTY, (202) 502-8659. Non-internet public documents may be viewed or obtained through our Public Reference Room. The Public Reference Room is available at (202)502-8371, toll free at (866)208-3676, or by e-mail at public.referenceroom@FERC.gov.

The United States Coast Guard is solely responsible for the classification as Sensitive Security Information any information or documents regarding LNG facilities. You must apply to the Coast Guard for permission to view and/or read any information or documents so classified. Please contact LTC Alan Blume, U. S. Coast Guard, 120 Woodward Avenue, New Haven CT 06512, to accomplish this.

There has been no application regarding an increase in the Iroquois Gas Transmission System (Iroquois) capacity. In a comment filed in the Broadwater docket, Iroquois stated that "Any construction activities to expand Iroquois' main line or construct new lateral facilities would be undertaken independently as a part of a future Iroquois expansion project and would be subject to Commission review and approval at such time."
